STRONG SUPPORT FOR EXCELIOR JOBS

Expanding on the expertise and skill of the employees at Excelior's Burnie contact centre must be a priority for all, says the Federal Member for Braddon Sid Sidebottom MP.

Mr Sidebottom met again today with Excelior CEO John Watkinson as part of ongoing discussions about the call centre's future in the town.

"I met with John some months ago, and have remained in contact, to see that jobs in Excelior's Burnie operation are not only preserved, but expanded upon," Mr Sidebottom said.

"This is an important employer to not only Burnie, but the entire region, and I am informed that the people who work here are very highly regarded in the industry.

"It has the potential to be a national leader in contact centres, and offers a number of benefits to companies and organisations seeking these type of services."

Mr Sidebottom said he had already alerted senior Rudd Government figures to the current challenges facing the Burnie centre, but also highlighted its good work and the advantages it offered."
